General Assembly, presided, propounding the constitutional questions and delivering the charge to the pastor. The Reverend Doctor F. R. Beattle of Louisville, Ky., preached the sermon, and the Reverend Doctor J. F. Cannon, paster of the Grand Avenue Church, delivered the charge to the people.

Doctor Beattle, in his sermon took his text from Mark xiii, 24. His theme was: "To Every Man His Work." He said, in part." Religion relates to the head, to the heart, and to the hand. By the head we know the truths of religion; by the heart we feel their power, and with our hands do our duty and work. In the parable from which the text is taken the church is represented as on the earth waiting for the return of her lord and the work of the church is insisted on, and in that work every one is called on to do his "Applying this truth to the circum stances in which this church finds itself the church is a shrine and a shop. As a shrine it gathers together for worship, as a shop the church is gathered together for religious work, which means each church should be a living creature, a factor in Christian service, in which every man

"The church should be a field and a force. As a field well cultivated, the young and old, well trained to the service of the Lord. As a force make its influence felt for good in the community, where it is placed."

for good in the community, where it is placed."

Mr. Mauze is probably one of the youngest pastors that ever filled the pulpit of a St. Louis church, He is only 29 years old. He is of Huguenot descent. An ancestor of his, who founded the town of Mauze, in France, for some time was able to protect the inhabitants of the town, but finally one day the soldiers fell on the town, slaughtering the citizens.

The founder of the American branch of the family, then a mere boy, was concealed by his nurse in a garden patch, and after the soldiers had gone was secreted till concealed in a wine cask, he was sent with other marchandise to England. He was married there, and, coming to America, founded the family in the colonies.

Mr. Mauze was born at Montevideo, Va., where his parents now live. He was graduated from Hampton-Sidney College, and later went through the Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, graduating in 1859. He accepted the call to the Presbyterian Church of Timber Ridge, Va., which is said to be one of the oldest churches in the State. The building was erected in 1752. He gave up that charge in January, the Lexington Presbytery releasing him at the request of the Reverend Doctor Cannon of St. Louis.

CENTRAL AMERICA AT THE FAIR.

Commissioner Chandler Believe Republics Will Respond Heartily. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, March 2-John Rice Chand er, who has been appointed Commissione of the fair to the Central American Republics, is in Washington. Mr. Chandler will depart for Central America Monday. He has great confidence that these Republics will respond heartily. He said this evening: "I have conferred with their representatives in this city, and all favor the plan. They have recommended that exhibits be made, but I must go down to finally arrange matters. I have been all through that country and I think I know the people well enough to speak correctly when I say they will exhibit and creditably, too. Were it not for the abnormal condition of the countries economically, their exhibits would be much more extensive. But I am sure they will be very excellent." of the fair to the Central American Repub-

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, March 2.-The Interior Department has under consideration the advisability of starting a new herd of bufvisability of starting a new herd of buffalo in the Yellowstone National Park by eatching up all the young buffalo that can be found and placing them under fence in the reservation. Twenty-two of these unimals are now located near the head of Pelican Creek.

The department also desires to purchase a few head from persons outside the park. The Comptroller of the Treasury has been communicated with as to the legality of paying the expense involved out of the revenue of the park and his answer holds that the funds derived from the notel leases, transportation and other privileges may be so used.

BELL AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH IS BLESSED

Impressive Services Mark Sunday Afternoon Ceremony at the New Edifice.

The beautiful service of the "blessing of the bells" was held at the new All Saints Catholic Church, corner of Irma and Maple avenues, yesterday afternoon on the occasion of consecrating the bell of the new edifice. The services were conducted by the Reverend John S. Long, pastor of the church, assisted by Fathers James Ryan and Henry Miller, members of the Passionist Order at Normandy, Mo.

Before the blessing Father Long held services of the litany of Jesus, followed by the benediction with the blessed sacra-ment, after which he addressed the large congregation on the history of the church bell. The first bell was cast, he said, in the latter part of the Third Century, at Cantania, a village in Southern Italy, from which place it takes its name, cantania, in Latin, meaning heil. It was adopted by the Catholic Church to commemorate the old Hebrew custom of summoning the peasants originated by Moses, who used a silver bell to call the worshipers to devotions.

to call the worshipers to devotions.

After the address the priest, accompanied by the entire congregation, proceeded to the outside of the building, where the bell was suspended on temporary hangings, and the solemn service of dedicating it to the church was held. The parishioners stood with bared heads in the falling snow while the priest, chanting prayers, baptized the bell to the service of God and man.

It will be placed permanently in the belfry to-day. The bell was cast in St. Louis and weighs almost haif a ton. On the top is the inscription, "D. O. M.," for the Latin phrase, "Deo Optumo Maximi," followed by the name of the paster and date of the dedication of the church, December 1, 1901. On the base is the name of Nellie C. Berg, patron.

Do the beautiful patron.

Beginning to-night, mission services will be held at the church every evaning, to continue until next Sunday evening.

OLD RIVER CAPTAIN DIES AT HIS HOME.

Enoch P. King Had Many Thrilling Experiences During the Civil War.

Captain Enoch P. King, one of the oldest rivermen in St. Louis, died at his home. No. 2952 Delmar boulevard, yesterday afternoon from old age. For forty years he was a familiar figure on deck and in the pilot-house of Mississippi River steam-

CAPTAIN ENOCH P. KING,

Veteran river man, died yesterday, dren, E. L. King, F. E. King and Mrs. H.

enty-four years ago, and at an early age secured the position of pilot on river steamers. At the time of the famous race be-tween the Robert E. Lee and the Natchez he piloted the Lee from Memphis to St. Louis. There was a heavy fog, and the Captain wished to stop the boat till it disappeared, but Captain King insisted that he knew the river perfectly, and the boat went on, winning the race.

In the war he ran blockade runners. During the Vicksburg blockade he had several narrow escapes from being shot.

He was captain of several boats, among which were the Heiena and the Miami. On account of his eyesight he was obliged to leave the river about ten years ago. He was a member of the Pilots' Association and also of the Masons. These lodges will have charge of the funeral, which will be held to-morrow afternoon. The burlal will e in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

KANSAS GUBERNATORIAL RACE. Field Against Bailey and He Is in the Lead.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Topeka, Kas., March 2.-Sixteen counties elected delegates to the Republican State and Congressional conventions yesterday. In all, 35 of the 105 counties have chosen delegates. The fight for the nomination for gates. The light for the nomination for Governor is exceedingly bitter, with exCongressman Bailey of Nemaha County leading. Jas. E. Troutman and Jas. E. Cole are close seconds. Bailey is the candidate of the Leland faction and the other four candidates are supported by the Burton element. The present congressional delegation will be renominated. Congressman Jackson of the Third District, the only Democrat, will have the united support of Democrats and Populists
